SUNDAY DEDICATION EXERCISES AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

A Great Day, Warm Weather, Musical Programs, Sermons, and all the Necessary Adjuncts to a Most Successful Dedication Day.—News of the Events, History and Notes.

The Christian church was organized in 1830 with a membership of seven persons: R. S. Tennant and wife, Eliza Tennant and daughter Eliza, Peter W. Applegate and wife, Ellen and Samuel Taylor and wife Julia. The organization was effected at the home of R. S. Tennant two miles south of town. The first two elders were Peter Applegate and Samuel Taylor. The first person to connect himself with the church after its organization was John Grigg Tennant. Other additions followed in rapid succession among whom were John Reed wife and daughter and son V. K. Reed, Crawford Cole and others. The church was served from time to time by such pioneer preachers as Gilbert Harney, Michael Coombs, John O'Kane, Aylett Raines and others. After meeting for several years from house to house and having preaching services in barns and in the woods, it was decided to remove to Greencastle. At first a room was secured on the north side of the square. This room could only be reached by a back stairway and as a consequence the attendance was confined mostly to one year, O. C. Atwater, two years; and the present pastor, Elder A. H. Morris who is serving his sixth year. Through the faithful work of these laborers the church has been brought to the splendid organization it bears now and which enjoyed such a glorious day yesterday.

The dedication exercises yesterday were the culmination and finish of many months of hard labor. The church undertook the task of building their new house of worship at a most advantageous time. Material was low in price and so was labor when the contracts were let. When we say that the entire structure cost $12,000 finished complete with organ, seats, carpets, windows, etc., the wonder is how was it done. A very careful committee had the matter in charge and to the keen foresight and management of business men the matter was left with the result that it was built in a business way.

The weather yesterday was warm but it was tempered in the morning by clouds. The people gathered early and were seated in the auditorium by gentlemanly ushers. The congregation were seated in a body in the Sunday school room the visitors being given seats in the auditorium. This prevented confusion and an immense crowd was seated, the ushers, infant class rooms being filled. The arrangements of seats placed all these facing the pulpit, the partitions being lifted and all the rooms thrown into one. Promptly at the members of the church. Afterwards meetings were held in the old Baptist church on West Franklin street. A suitable room was next secured in the county seminary building where for many years services were regularly held.

Rent was paid to the amount of $12 per year. Among the ministers in these years were: John B. New, L. H. Jameson, A. R. Benton, S.
K. Houshour, B. K. Smith, Alfred Flower, E. P. Goodwin, James M.
Matthews, Moses E. Lard, Benjamin Franklin, M. B. Hopkins and O. P. Badger. At this point the growth of the church began to force upon the membership the necessity of a house of worship, and Elder Peter W. Applegate was appointed to solicit funds. A record of the funds shows that their donations came from abroad as well as at home. The congregation continued to meet in the seminary room until the close of 1852, meetings were held in the court house. In September 19, 1853 the lot corner of Indiana and Poplar street, the present site was purchased and the contract for the building let to A. J. Smedley who finished it in 1855, after many delays on account of a shortness of funds. A pastor was then secured in Oliver P. Badger, who became the first regular minister in charge, who served several years. After him the pastors were as follows:
J. W. Cox, one year; Aylett Raines, one year; F. S. Stimson, one year; Alfred Flower, one and a half year, O. F. Lane, one year; O. P. Badger, two years; A. J. Laughlin, five years; J. H. Waggoner, two years; Prof. Thompson, one year; W. B.
Taylor, two years; A. G. Flemming, 10:30 the new organ pealed forth Handel's "Largo" and the day's exercises opened. The rostrum was occupied by Elder A. H. Morris.

Elder Shuey, Elder E. M. Raines, Dr. H. A. Gobin and the ministers of the city, back of them being the choir of eighteen voices with Mrs.
F. A. Hays at the organ. After the opening exercises Rev. Rains of Cincinnati, preached for thirty minutes taking the Lord's Prayer as a text. This was followed by the statement that the building committee desired to raise $4,000 and the work was begun with a will. Elder Rains was happy in this branch in the work and his appeals, points and remarks kept the audience in good humor. The Y.

gave $500 each which was followed rapidly by five $100 subscriptions.
The amount asked for then fell to $50, then on down to $5, closing with a general collection bringing the total to $2,900. At 3:30 p. m., another large audience assembled and the program as printed was carried out, including the Lord's supper. Addresses were made by pastors of the city, Dr. Gobin of DePauw university, visiting ministers and others. In the way of subscriptions another $100 was pledged in a lump and several ten and five dollar pledges were reported. This threw the total slightly above $3,000.

In the evening another large crowd, testing the capacity of the church gathered to hear a song service. Elder Rains preached a few moments and then announced that there would be no more calls for subscriptions as the building committee had assumed the remaining indebtedness of nearly $1,000. The handsome building was then dedicated to the Lord's service by Elder Raines who closed as follows:

We now dedicate this house to the worship of the living and true God, and to the service of Jesus Christ, our Lord.
We devote it to the preaching of the gospel of the grace of God for the conversion of sinners, and to the education of Christians in a knowledge of spiritual truth in all the graces of Christian character, and in all the activities of Christian life. Here shall the incense of prayer and praise ascend to God.
Here shall the ordinances of the Lord's House be sacredly observed. Here shall the word of God which liveth and abideth forever be sounded out for the salvation of the perishing, and shine as a perpetual light to guide God's pilgrims through the night of time to the light of everlasting glory. Here may children of sin and sorrow find a refuge from despair and ruin; and Christians a harbor to which they can resort when the tempest is high, and be safe. Here in the hearts of humble worshippers may the Holy Spirit find a temple and the doctrine of God's word distill upon the waiting and thirsty spirits, as the rains upon the mown grass and as the showers that water the earth; so that righteousness may flourish and holiness abound, and all the rich fruit of the spirit be yielded in a blessed harvest to the praise of God.

May no discordant note of strife ever be heard within these walls, no unholy spirit of pride or worldliness find entrance here; but may the faith out of which all goodness springs, the hope which purifies and comforts the sorrowing heart, and the love which honors God, blesses man, and binds Christians in blessed fellowship, even inspire and sway the hearts and lives of those who worship here, so that, with one mind and heart, they may strive together for the faith delivered and let their light shine that others, seeing their good works, may glorify our Father Who is in heaven. May these earthly courts be as the holy place in the temple, separated only by a veil from the holiest of all, in which the royal priests of the house of God may trim the Golden lamp and eat of the bread of life, and burn incense at the gold altar; and thus, drawing near to God with true hearts in full assurance of faith, may they be prepared to enter finally "within the veil" to rejoice in the presence of God, where there is fulness of joy; and at His right hand, where there are blessings forever-more.

And may God graciously accept this offering of a house in His name—an offering made by grateful hearts and willing hands—and bless every heart that shares in this gift. And when, one by one, those who have shared in this service shall be taken from these earthly scenes and leave a vacant seat, may they find a yet more blessed home in that house not made with hands, eternal in the heaven, where the worshippers shall go no more out forever.

May multitudes here be borne to God, so that when all these here today shall have gone to their eternal home, others will take up the service and repeat from generation the old, old story of the cross and the songs of Zion and the prayers of saints until Jesus comes and all His redeemed are gathered home.

We give thanks to God that His people have been able to offer willingly after this sort. We invoke His blessing on the labor of their hands; and we commit to His holy care and keeping all the interests connected with this religious enterprise.

"May the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it." Let this house be a home for the strangers, a place of welcome and comfort for the poor, a consolation for the distressed, and a place of salvation for the sinner.
Let it be a place for the guidance of youth, for the consolation of age, for the good men and the glory of God.

Altogether it was a great success, spiritually, musically and financially and the membership of industrious workers and popular pastor may well feel proud of their achievement.

over the Monon Saturday night was well patronized. Fifty-seven Green-cheap rates and spent Sunday in the "windy city." The excursion train had about 850 passengers aboard when it left this city. The train reached Greencastle upon its return trip at eight o'clock this morning with a decidedly tired lot of passengers.About twelve o'clock Saturday night, Jack Jimson, fireman at the electric light plant, found the body of an unknown man on the Vandalia tracks just behind Harris' mill. The body was still warm and he had probably been dead but a few moments when found.

The man's neck was broken and the several bruises about the head led to the belief that the man had fallen from an east bound freight train which passed about the time the accident must have occurred. Coroner Kleinbub was called and had the remains taken to Hanna's undertaking establishment, where they were viewed by large crowds Sunday. On the man's person was found a letter of recommendation from J. Savony, master mechanic of the Chicago south side rapid transit railroad company. The name of the bearer given in the letter is P. Croke and he is spoken of as an industrious and competent workman. A pawn ticket for thirty cents, bearing the name of Geo.
H. Hough, pawn broker, of Kansas City, Mo., was also found. A long lock of hair, an a letter addressed to Miss Laura Newman, St. Louis, Mo., completed the list of things found in the pockets of the dead man. Coroner Kleinbub sent a letter of inquiry to Miss Newman at St. Louis, Mo., but as yet no answer has been received. About 11:30 Saturday night a man, supposed to be the one killed, entered Vance's lunch room in South Greencastle, accompanied by two companions; they got a drink of water and left the place.
All were respectfully dressed and did not have the bearings of tramps. Yesterday a man thought to have been one of the three men just mentioned, was arrested by Marshal Starr and held as a witness for the coroner's inquest, which will be held this afternoon. The remains were interred this afternoon.
The man placed in jail stated the dead man was one of a party of six who had

GARRIOTT.

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored
One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.No DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nerveless, as LaGrippe.

Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Kentucky, says:
"In 1889 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.
When in this condition, I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured, much to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends." Louisville, Jan. 22, 1895. D. W. HILTON.
